Fiona Frick Joins Imperial Business School's Finance Advisory Board

London, 18/9/25— Fiona Frick, founder of Circe Invest and a leading voice in strategic investment and sustainable finance, has been appointed to the Finance Advisory Board of Imperial College Business School.

The Finance Advisory Board plays a pivotal role in supporting Imperial's MSc Finance programmes. Its mission is to ensure programme content remains aligned with evolving industry needs and prepares students to meet the challenges of a rapidly transforming financial landscape.

In addition to shaping programme relevance, the Board also fosters enduring links between Imperial's academic output in finance and the global investment industry.

Fiona brings to the Board more than three decades of experience in asset management and capital allocation, with a career spanning leadership roles, public speaking, and active engagement in sustainable finance. As the founder of Circe Invest, she advises asset owners and managers on building resilient, purpose-aligned investment frameworks that integrate performance, risk, and long-term relevance.
